DRUG CRIMES: SEARCH & SEIZURE

ATTORNEYS PROTECTING SEATTLE CLIENTS FROM ILLEGAL SEARCH & SEIZURE

The Fourth Amendment to the United States Constitution limits the power of police to make arrests, search people and their property, and seize objects and contraband (such as illegal drugs or weapons). If you believe that your rights have been violated during a search and seizure, don't hesitate to contact a defense attorney to discuss your rights.

The attorneys at our law firm have worked in many drug cases throughout Seattle where a client's fourth amendment rights were violated because of an unreasonable search or an unauthorized seizure. If you have been charged with a drug offense, a Seattle criminal defense lawyer will take the proper measures to examine your situation to find out if any search or seizure violations occurred. If evidence is obtained through an illegal search or seizure, the judge may suppress the evidence.

WASHINGTON SEARCH & SEIZURE LAWS

Search and seizure laws can be complex and it will take a highly experienced and effective drug crime defense attorney to evaluate your situation. The skills of your attorney will be very influential in convincing the courts of a rights violation and subsequence suppression of evidence, so if you have reason to believe that illegal search and seizure took place in your drug case you should immediately speak with a lawyer at our firm so they can begin investigating this matter.