WHY HIRE A SEATTLE DUI ATTORNEY?

Deciding whether to hire an attorney is one of the most important choices to make after you have been arrested for DUI. This decision will have a strong influence the outcome of your case and eventually the penalties that you may face for a DUI conviction. When you are trying to deal with the stress and uncertainty that comes with a DUI arrest, it can seem like an impossible task to decide which attorney is right for your case. While the process of looking for an attorney can be overwhelming, there are several things that you can do to simplify your options.

The single most important thing to remember is that you should take your time and do plenty of research. There are countless law firms out there who make promises that seem too good to be true, and it is a good idea to talk with your friends and family for recommendations. If you don't have anyone to help you, you can turn to online reviews in order to get a feel of what a law firm is truly like. Are there a lot of negative reviews or complaints? These can be indicators that the lawyers at the firm may not be the best option for you.

BENEFITS OF HIRING A PROFESSIONAL DUI LAWYER

What can a DUI attorney do to help? If you have been offered a plea bargain, an attorney can review your circumstances and help make a determination as to whether this is actually in your best interests. Have you failed a breath test or blood test? A qualified DUI attorney can investigate every aspect of your tests to determine if it will actually hold up in court. After you have been arrested for DUI, you only have a short window of time to request a hearing to fight an automatic license suspension by the Department of Licensing. Your DUI attorney can protect your rights and fight to help you retain your driving privileges at your DOL hearing as well as your criminal hearing. When you are looking around for the best DUI attorney, feel free to schedule actual interviews with law firms in your area. The attorneys who will genuinely care about you and your case.
